1. I love you Ted and I love your pursuit of Me—My Covenant—in fullness, for all My people to operate in and know Me intimately. I love you. I love you. I love you.

2. I love Tom [Mohn] and John [Cook] and Don [Eland] and Mike [McCutchin], and Ted, all those who will help you in your quest to take Me to My Mine, and My Mine into intimacy, with fullness, in Me.

3. I come, I called, and I am crowning. I am crowning many through you for generalship, lieutenantship, captainship, admiralship, and leadership within My body—My body full, My body freedom-ed, freed, operating in freedom that can come only in My New Covenant and in My Holy Place, The Most Holy Place—which now has no veil and no doors and no gates, no gatekeepers, no guards, but full and free access to pass into and out of at will—at your will, at their will, and if they so choose, know Me as I have never been known.

4. The invitation—the clarion call with crystal clear clarity goes forth—has gone forth in your writings this year, over and over, over and over, and so many shirked and some delved into study and meditate and see Me clearer—unlocking you, unlocking Me, unlocking revelation past, hidden, obscure, awaiting My Mine, in My time, and their pursuit of Me.

5. Oh fly—rejoice—two years—so close. So much, so many, so free, so abundanced, so radicalized, non-traditionalized, freed, breathing new breath in deeper realms of Me for inventions and discoveries and combinations of elements and relationships for Me, for Mine—delivery systems of new creations of Me—technologized at the highest levels—Me, Me, Ted, My level.

6. I love you for kneeling, for reading out loud, for proclaiming My New Covenant [Hebrews, chapters 1- 8], even to empty pews, visibly empty pews, but not empty in Me—oh Word gone forth—not void, not void, never void. Thank you for lying prostrate before Me and what you said and what you saw and see and Ted, it comes, I come, they come.

7. The value system you now operate in live, and live it must in My body, at large, in small—in every person and those who want Me more.

8. I give, I grasp this opportunity to express again My intense deep desire to constantly tell My people of My love and how much I have for them if they will but come to Me and sit at My feet.

9. An hour a day, an hour a day, is it worth an hour a day? Is what you are receiving from Me worth an hour a day, an hour a day, an hour every day, and more when they want Me?

10. Oh Ted, expound, explain, expound, explicate and exponentiate My body by bringing them into unity with Me and each other in blocks of focused prayer where they meditate and read and study not, not always, not often, but pour out of their heart and consciousness and emotion into My heart and My consciousness and My emotion. Pour into Me so I can pour back—washed, cleansed, purified with water and blood of My doing, of Me, of My realm, to royalty-ize them and leadership bestow.

11. I love you. I love them. I emotion you and your gift today of clarity of My picture of My New Covenant living—is Me and My gift to you this day, this Christmas Eve, this Christmas, and forevermore will I expand it through you and your seed and your children—of every sort and seed and tribe, tongue and nation—that comes through continuing revelatory truths,
that bring forth continuing revelatory truths,
that bring forth continuing revelatory truths,
in generation succeeding generation.

12. I love you. Go, grow, enjoy My provision provided from sources unknown and known.

It all comes Ted—buildings arising on land and faculty and helpers in lands foreign and many, and lifters of your head, lifting the hands of My body.
All for Me Ted.
All for Me.
Not for you, for Me.

13. I love you. I love Tom [Mohn] and Don [Eland] and Mike [McCutchin] and John [Cook] and Barbi, and, oh Barbi I love—I love what I'm doing with MY Barbi-doll, in My kingdom special, arisen, freed, almost freed, so free.

14. I love you. I love My helpers, My lifters, My donaters, donors, helpers, freedomizers, and Ted—set them free—you know what I mean.

15. I thank you—My gift.
I thank you—My gift.

16. An hour a day for all and more for the seekers serious.

17. I love you.
Merry Christmas.

18. I love you.
I love you every single one.

I come.
Look for Me.
I will surprise you—often.
Watch for Me. I am there.

Thank you. I love you.
Thank you. I love you.
Thank you. I love you.
